Notes: Former Afghanistan nationals applying for a visa can experience lengthy delays in the processing of their visa. It is highly possible that they may be denied a visa. It is strongly recommended to allow at least one month for processing and to not purchase non-refundable tickets until the visa has been approved. If the visa is approved it will most likely only be valid for a maximum stay of 45 days.

Minors: Provide a letter confirming both parents' consent duly attested by a Justice of the Peace. A certified copy of child's Birth certificate must also be provided.
